3rd Party Payment Contract

To be used when someone other than the bride or groom are making a payment for their wedding photography services.

1. This agreement is between two parties: Hayes Wedding Photography ("studio") and the person providing payment ("client") for photography services rendered or to be rendered to a 3rd party ("bride and groom".)
2. Payments by the client are to be applied to the outstanding balance of a separate contract between Hayes Wedding Photography and the bride and groom.
3. All payments made by the client are non-refundable. The client agrees that if a refund is due for any reason (including but not limited to overpayment, failure to render services, etc.), the refund shall be paid directly to the bride and groom. The client understands that in the event the wedding is canceled more than 31 (thirty-one) days before the wedding, the bride and groom will receive a refund a all monies paid with the exception of the retainer. When a cancellation is made 31 days or less before the wedding, the bride and groom are responsible for the full contract amount and no refund will be made.
4. All canceled checks or stopped credit card payments shall be charged a $25 (twenty-five) service fee or the maximum allowed by law, which ever is less. The client understands that if a check is canceled or a payment stopped, the outstanding balance on this contract may be sent to a collection service to insure payment in full.
5. This Contract incorporates the entire understanding of the parties. If any part if this contract is deemed unenforceable by a court of law, the remainder of the contract remains in full effect. Any modifications of this Contract must be in writing and signed by both parties.
